

Physical Therapy Department Awards
(as of 02/2009)

PHPSG Spring Banquet

Department of Physical Therapy Spirit Award – Award recipient demonstrates firm commitment to the mission and goals of Creighton University and the Physical Therapy Department.

Nick Steichen Memorial Award - Award recipient is a first year student chosen by his or her classmates as possessing the characteristics of scholarship, optimism, humor, helpfulness and happiness.

Honors Convocation

Developing Clinician Award – Award recipient demonstrates excellent progress toward becoming a skilled and compassionate physical therapist.

Physical Therapy Faculty Scholarship Award – Award recipient demonstrates a high level of professionalism, spirit and class camaraderie, and commitment to academic excellence.

Sidney J. Stohs, PhD Endowed Scholarship – Award recipient demonstrates high academic achievement and financial need.

Physical Therapy Leadership Guild Scholarship – Award recipient is a member of the PTLG and demonstrates a high level of leadership, service and academics. (Awarded at the PTLG installation.)

RehabVisions Developing Clinician Award – Award recipient demonstrates excellent progress toward becoming a skilled and compassionate physical therapist.

PT Book Awards

This award is given in recognition of commitment and dedication to the physical therapy profession and program.